

*I'm a PAX leader,
I better my world,
I better myself.*

PAX is a universal approach that provides educators, parents, and community members simple and effective tools that improve the lives of children - in the short and long term.

 PAXis Innovation Canada
An international prevention science organization to better the world, with peace, productivity, health, and happiness

With PAX, you will see:

- 20% - 30% reduction in need for special education
- 50% - 70% reduction in mental health difficulties
- 10% - 30% reduction in injuries or stress related complaints
- An increase in school attendance
- Happier families

"There is a change in the students. They are more caring about each other. They respect each other more."

"...it has a very calming impact on the classroom for the children as well as myself"

"The kids seem to have taken more ownership in their own behaviour as opposed to me constantly reminding them"

If you are an educator, you will experience:

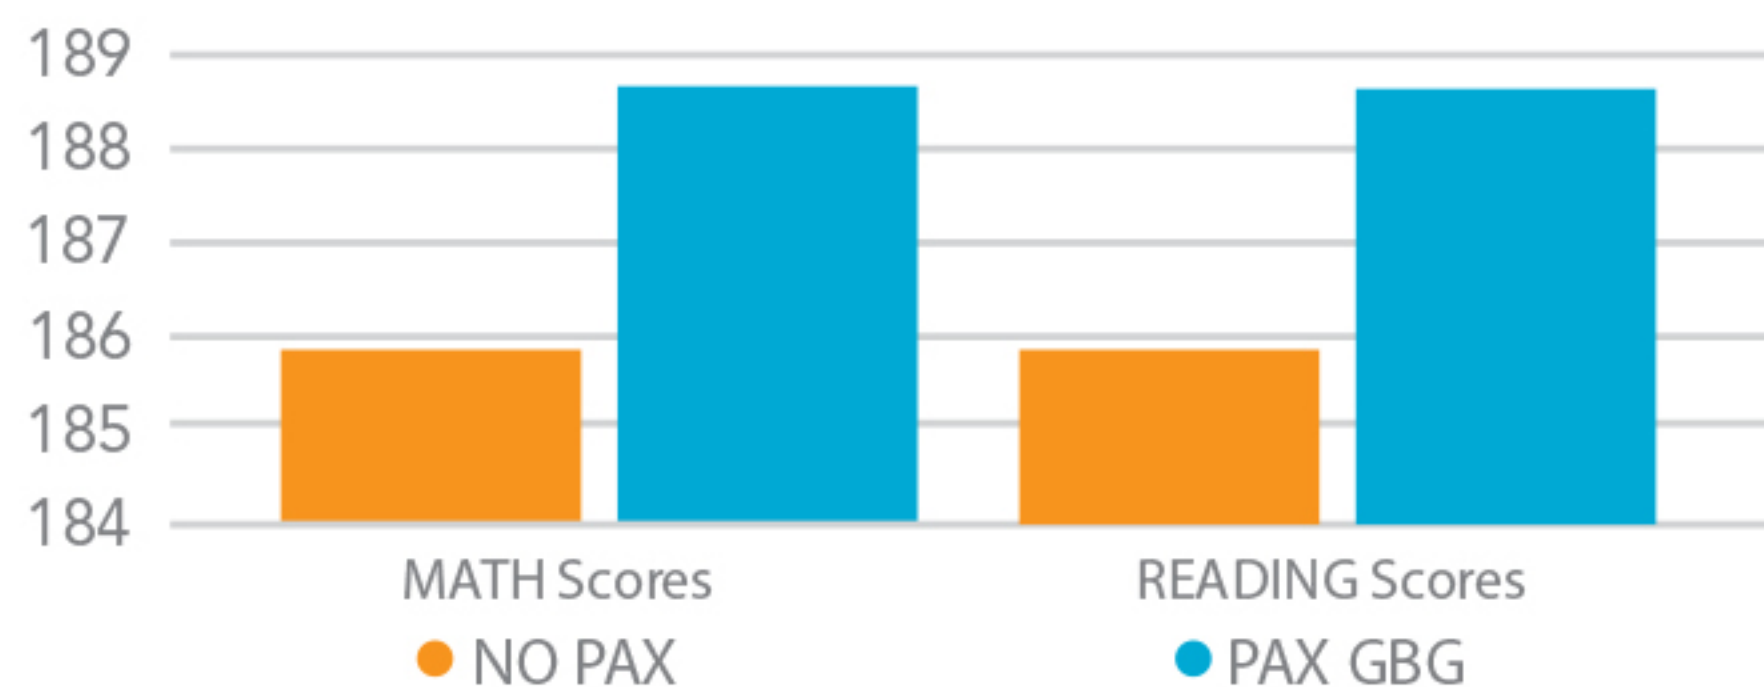

- Major improvements in engaged learning by children
- 60 - 90 minutes more time to teach and learn each day
- Improved reading and math skills without requiring curriculum changes
- 75 - 125 (40% - 50%) fewer disruptions per hour in class
- Less stress in the classroom

TEACHER STRESS / DEPRESSION SCORES

A Swedish implementation demonstrated a 60% decrease in teacher stress in only five months (Ghaderi, Johansson, Enebrink, 2017).

"I find the children are noticing the positive in others"

The children are the heroes of their change.

PAX helps children develop better self-regulation without the use of the 3 Cs - Control, Coercion, Consequences

When you use PAX, you are

- Co-creating a nurturing environment
- Teaching and learning Self-Regulation
- Prioritizing a proactive - not reactive - mindset
- Promoting positive relational language that empowers children to create more Peace, Productivity, Health and Happiness in their world

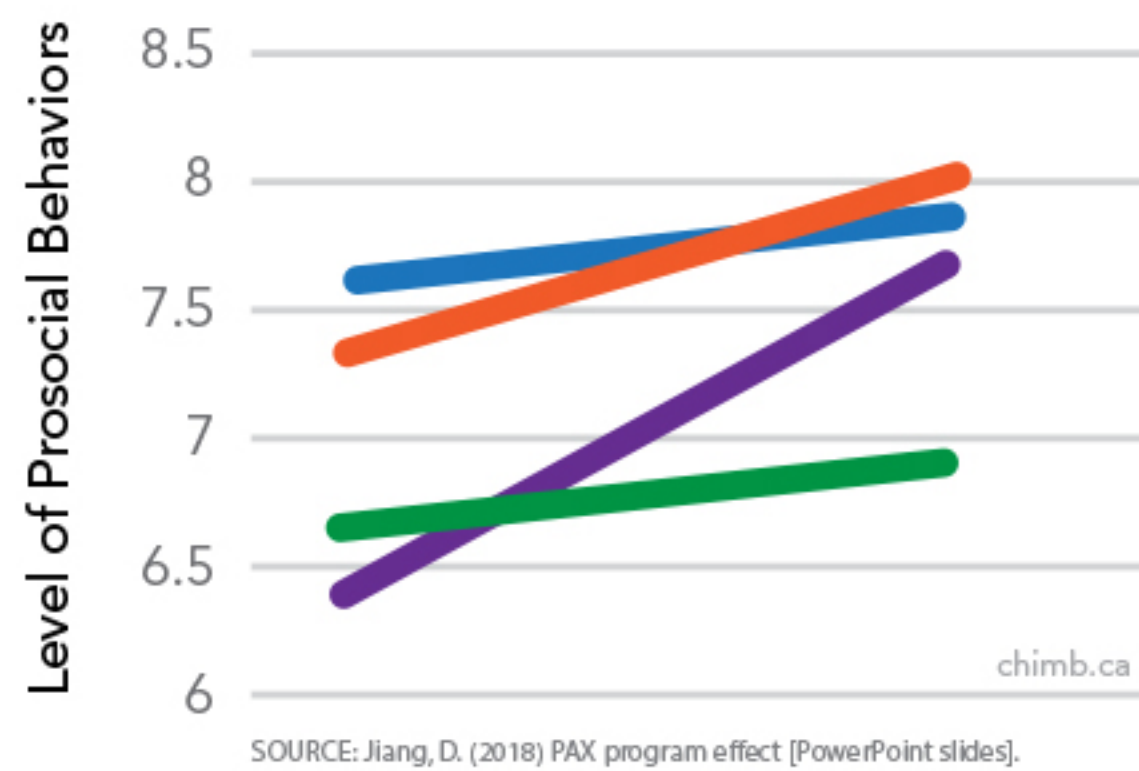

PAX increases children's lifetime positive relationships and financial success

PAX increases positive lifetime outcomes for children.

PAX develops self-regulation in children & youth. It is not a behaviour management system.

PAX is a way of being. It is an approach - not a curriculum.
